II. PRESIDENT’S REPORT
Introduction of Tina Pitt & Francis Steindorf
Beth welcomed and introduced the newly hired Assistant Dean of EOPs, Francis Steindorf and Interim, Vice President Academic Affairs, Tina Pitt. They both thanked the Senate for having them and to feel free to meet with them if there were any questions.

Part Time Faculty Issues Committee – Attachment #1
Beth reviewed attachment #1 copy of Council/Committee Request Form for the Part Time Faculty Issues Committee. She noted two additions were made to the composition in the fall. A student and an Instructional Dean were included. Each year changes can be made to the composition.

Spring 2007 Election
Beth reviewed the election process and explained why the Part Time Faculty (contested) Section of the election was invalidated. She noted the part time faculty candidates were in attendance. Beth reviewed the information in the February 5, 2007 Academic Senate meeting minutes and members of the election. The election timeline for senate elections in 2000 was referenced. Discussion included appropriate campaigning, past practice, specification of the and availability of the election rules, timeliness, and other issues. All candidates were invited to comment on the events preceding nullification of the election.

Scott Barr made a three part motion 1) Wants people to be informed that Raul and David did not violate protocol and that they acted in good faith, 2) Conduct a new election, and 3) Develop an improved protocol for future elections. A friendly amendment changed the first portion to read "all individuals acted in good faith".

Questions of protocol for motions were considered and usual senate rules for conducting business out of order. The question was called. Gregg stated in order to stop the debate a 2/3s vote was needed.
M/S/U Burger/Morrison
The motion passed.
Beth put Scott’s motion on the floor. There were four abstentions.
M/S/P Barr/Robinson
The motion passed.

Beth reviewed the Brown Action and how it stated Senators cannot carry on business outside of a Senate meeting. Emails were sent that were cloaked and blind copied to many outside of the Senate. She had received many responses and emails from people outside of the Senate regarding Senate business. Beth expressed the importance of following rules in order to maintain the integrity of the senate’s work.

Chris stated as she moves in to the Senate with her officer their responsibility will be to uphold Senate business. She encouraged everyone to communicate professionally regardless of the form of the communication and invited faculty to call a colleague for clarification before forming an opinion.

Governing Board Workshop and Collegial Consultation – March 27
Beth stated the Chancellor had expressed this workshop is not technical assistance. The date is March 27, 2007 and a time is to be determined. It will be a great learning experience for all. The workshop is schedule to be held at Cuyamaca College Heritage Museum. Concern was expressed regarding the size of the location and if a message could be sent to the district regarding the possibility of a large venue so more can attend. Beth will keep the group posted.

III. COMMITTEE REPORTS
None.

IV. ACTION ITEMS

ISLOs – Attachment #2 & #3
The group reviewed the ISLOs attachments. A motion was made to approve the diagram.

Senate Agenda and Public Comment

Purpose: The public must be given an opportunity to comment on items on the Agenda, as well as, any other items he/she deems important for the body.
The body may establish procedures for public comment and specify reasonable time limitations that are fair.
The general trend appears that most groups place it at the end of their agenda. What would serve us?

Where to place public comment? Consider the following:

Placing it at the beginning of the agenda:
After "Call to Order," before "Approval of Agenda" would allow the agenda to be amended should someone’s comment be crucial to the Senate to discuss. A motion could be made to add the item to the agenda.
Persons wanting to speak during public comment would know what time he/she should be present at the meeting.
This would allow the Senate to take into consideration the person’s comments when discussion for the item is reached on the agenda.

Placing it at the end of the agenda:
Senate business is discussed first to cover everything as best as possible.
The person’s topic during public comment can be placed on the agenda for the next Senate meeting, and Senate reps will have time to digest the information.
The total time for public comment will need to be monitored carefully so the meeting can adjourn at its designated time.

Possible Format:
1) Consider 4 minutes per speaker as our Board allows 4 minutes per person.
2) Total time of 15 minutes equals 3-4 persons speaking during this time (provided they use all of their time). 3) If more time is needed, a motion can always be made to extend public comment.
4) A statement added to the agenda about contacting the Senate Secretary if one wishes to participate in public comment.
5) A statement added to the agenda to let the public know that, "The Senate welcomes all comments during the agendized item."
