Grossmont College's Hyde Art Gallery to Host Artists Guild Show

Opening Reception July 8, 7-9 p.m.

El Cajon – Members of the San Diego Museum of Art Artists Guild and the Faculty of the Grossmont College Art Department selected 50 outstanding pieces to be shown in July at the Guild's second democratically juried exhibition. More than 380 pieces were entered in the mixed-media Artists Guild competition, including photography, sculpture, traditional drawing and painting as well as digital art.

The exhibition will open with a reception Tuesday, July 8, 7-9 p.m. at the Grossmont College Hyde Gallery, 8800 Grossmont College Drive, El Cajon, and will run through July 25.

"This is a wonderful opportunity to showcase artists from the greater San Diego region in our Hyde Gallery, as an enhancement to our regular season,” said Ted Martinez Jr. college president. “Our summer session students will enjoy the opportunity to visit the Hyde and to experience the presentation of a prestigious juried exhibition of mixed-media art. We welcome the San Diego Museum of Art Artists Guild with enthusiasm and thank them for this opportunity for collaboration in the visual arts.”

Grossmont College Dean of Communication and Fine Arts, Shannon O’Dunn, coordinated activities of the Artists Guild exhibition and the Hyde Gallery. Hyde Gallery Curator Ben Aubert curated and hung the show.

Driving directions to Grossmont College are available at www.grossmont.edu. Patrons should park in lot 1, where parking is free for the duration of the exhibition.
