MyStatLab REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

Before Getting Started:

- MyMathLab will not work for this class!
- If you are purchasing your book elsewhere then you need to purchase it with MyStatLab.
- If you are not purchasing a textbook then you will only need to pay for MyStatLab access.
- You will have free access to StatCrunch by registering onto MyStatLab.

1) Go to www.mystatlab.com Under REGISTER NOW click on STUDENT:

2) The next window will give you information as to what you will need in order to complete the registration process. Scroll down for more information. When you are ready click on OK REGISTER NOW! (you may have to scroll down to see it):

3) Type in the course ID “orr61275” and click CONTINUE.
4) Your course will appear to the right of your browser. Your course is “Math 160 – Fall 2015 (Orr)” with course ID “orr61275”

Choose “Sign in with your Pearson Account” only if you took this class last semester and used MyStatLab, then you already have a username and password. Sign in with your username and password from last semester to access this course.

Choose “Create a Pearson Account” IF YOU HAVE NEVER TAKEN THIS CLASS BEFORE, then you need to create your own Pearson Account. Click on CREATE to continue.
5) Once you have clicked on “CREATE”, fill out the registration form. When you create a unique username and password, make sure to WRITE it down. I will not have access to your username and password.

At the end, make sure to accept the license agreement and click on CREATE ACCOUNT.

6) Next you are given three options; either you have an access code, you want to pay for access NOW using a credit card or you are waiting on financial aid and need temporary access.

- If you purchased a NEW textbook bundled with the MyStatLab ACCESS CARD then the access code is inside the card. Click “Access Code” and be prepared to enter the access code.

- If you decided not to buy a textbook and will only be purchasing access to MyStatLab then click “$95.70 USD” be prepared to use a credit card to make payment. Note that the price may have been increased after these instructions were typed out.

- If you are waiting for financial aid, you can access the course without payment for 14 days. Click “Get temporary access……” It is your responsibility to MAKE PAYMENT BEFORE YOUR TEMPORARY ACCESS EXPIRES. If your temporary access expires, you will receive zeros on any assignment due during the time you were without access. You may also lose all of your completed assignments.

Remember that you should not create a new account when your temporary access runs out. Just follow the instructions in the email reminder from MyStatLab or Pearson on how to pay for your access. Creating a new account will result in losing your completed assignments from your temporary account.

7) Confirmation

Print the confirmation and summary page for your records.

You can choose to go into the course directly but it is best to log off and then log back in by going to back to the link below. http://www.mystatlab.com/
REMINDER FOR STUDENTS WHO CHOOSE TEMPORARY ACCESS:

Each time you sign in to your course, you will have the opportunity to change your temporary access. Make sure to do this before your temporary access expires. It’s very simple to do. Just click on “pay or use an access code now” Below is a sample only. Your window will display your “____________” course with Course ID: “____________”

Temporary Access

If you’re waiting for financial aid and can’t pay immediately, you can access the full set of features in your instructor's online course without payment for 14 days. The temporary access option enables you to start your coursework and avoid missing deadlines set by your instructor.

You’ll get reminder emails with payment instructions before your temporary access expires. To stay in your course, use an access code or pay by credit card or PayPal. If you don’t pay by the expiration date, you will lose access to your course and get an expiration email with payment instructions. Once you pay for full access, you regain any coursework you completed before losing access. PLEASE DON’T CREATE A NEW ACCOUNT

Note: Once you use the temporary access option for a course, you can’t use the option again for that same course.
