

WAY of the SACRED MOUNTAIN

Native American Heritage Month Events

Walking in Beauty Exhibit Honoring Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women

Grossmont College Library
Nov. 9-30

Opening Ceremony

Thursday, Nov. 9 12-2pm Main Quad

Come join in the cultural celebration to commemorate Native American Heritage Month and the opening of the MMIW Walking in Beauty Exhibit. This ceremony will include an opening Kumeyaay blessing, speakers, traditional dancers, Red Warrior Drum, Kumial Bird Singers and music artist Tracy Nelson. Indian Tacos provided.

Presentation on Art and Spirituality in Indigenous Resistance Movements

Tuesday, November 14 9:30-11am 26-220

Learn about the crucial role of art and creativity in the struggle for justice in Indigenous communities.

Presentation on Environmental Justice

Thursday, Nov. 16 10:30-12:20 26-220

What is our connection to the land and how can we honor it? What is a "land acknowledgment" and why do they matter?

Film Screening of Sacheen: Breaking the Silence and Manzanar Diverted: When Water Turns to Dust

Wednesday, Nov. 29 12:30-2:30pm 51-575

Watch these two important films to learn more about the struggle for more fair representation and treatment among tribal communities of the US. Popcorn and candy provided!