Your 2018-2019 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been flagged for "Unusual Enrollment History" by the U. S. Department of Education because you received Federal financial aid at multiple educational institutions during the review periods of 2014-15, 2015-16, 2016-17, and 2017-18. This flag requires the Grossmont College Financial Aid Office to review your enrollment history, the reason(s) why you may have not completed units while receiving federal aid and to determine if you have continuing eligibility for federal student aid. Your aid history, as reported to the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) and Common Origination and Disbursement (COD), will be reviewed as part of this appeal process. Some students may have legitimate reasons for their enrollment at multiple institutions and lack of progress. However, such conditions require a review before your application for further financial aid may be considered.

Please complete the steps below. Your application for financial aid cannot be processed until you submit this completed form and required documentation. Failure to complete the entire form with the applicable attachments (a detailed statement explaining your extenuating circumstances and any supporting documentation) and official academic transcripts (or unofficial transcripts from a regional non-accredited institution) may result in the denial of your financial aid. You will be notified via e-mail of the decision. If you are denied you will not be eligible for federal student aid, but you will be provided with information on how you may regain eligibility for federal aid.

SECTION A - Schools Attended

Submit an official academic transcript to the Grossmont College Admissions & Records Office for any and all educational institutions where Federal Financial Aid was received.
