BUSINESS

- A. Camera Discussion
Sharon Samson | 35 minutes (info/discussion/action)

The board will come together and listen to Sharon inform the board of the debate currently of cameras on campus. Afterwards the board will decide its position on the cameras on campus.

Cameras

- Cameras are already installed on campus
- Requesting for more transparency in terms of new updates to the cameras to additional cameras
- The cost and investment of camera in question
- Figuring out where the cameras should be installed

(GCCCD Annual Security Report | 2020=2022)

- We looked over data (GCCCD Annual Security Report | 2023). Crimes in close proximity to the area of the college are still accounted for and counted in the data.
- The Clery Act Crime Statistics are accessible through the Grossmont College website

In summary, discussion about transparency regarding cameras and concerns of being hyper-surveilled.

- Key Questions: How much for these cameras? Who is retaining the data and is our privacy safe?

Outdated Grossmont map of camera locations at the moment are not accurate, still pushing to get updated map with accurate camera locations marked.

Emily was interested in requesting locations of where the crimes that were reported took place to evaluate where the cameras should be placed. Board agrees with requesting for this information.

B. Math Survey

Madeleine Winchester | 20 minutes (info/discussion/action)

The board will come together and decide if we will support the implantation of her survey regarding math.

Madeleine has a rough draft of the survey that pertains to AB 705 and AB 1705

- She has created a survey for students and a survey for tutors.
- Dr. Marsha Gable brings up survey fatigue and how survey can be facilitated to be more effective and mentions needing to have a conversation with curriculum chairs regarding the instatement of the class.

They stopped offering Math 110 as a prerequisite and it is not offered as a credit class, Madeleine wants Math 110 to still be offered still as a non-credit class.

C. Club Charter

Christian Thornton | 10 minutes (info/discussion/action)

The board will vote whether we should charter clubs that have completed their club charter form

Christian motions to strike the club charter. Second from Naomi.
