Eric Anzures

ASGC Vice President
ASGC Board Member

I am a dedicated Grossmont College student who is committed to representing and advocating for my fellow peers. Through my involvement in campus organizations and leadership roles, I have developed strong communication, organization, and teamwork skills. I am very passionate about improving student life, increasing campus engagement, and ensuring every student voice is heard. I am more than prepared to take on the responsibilities of this position, attend meetings consistently, and actively contribute to campus and district wide committees. Serving in ASGC would allow me to further create meaningful change and leave a positive impact on our campus community.
