“I dedicate myself to fulfilling the interests of each Grossmont student by improving our campus life. From my perspective, students’ voices must be listened to, and the school’s events, both academic and recreational, must lean toward the needs of students. It is my aspiration to cultivate an academic environment in which every individual is embraced with open arms regardless of ethnicity, race, or childhood upbringing. I pride myself on quickly executing responsibilities entrusted to me with integrity and diligence. Let’s build a more competitive and inclusive college experience together.”
