History of the College

It was a college starting from scratch – no name, no firm location and no construction funding. But from the moment the idea was born, Grossmont College promised to become one of the county’s leading higher education institutions. Following several years of study involving both lay and educational groups, the voters of the area approved the formation of the Grossmont Junior College District in an election held Nov. 8, 1960. The first official organizational meeting of the Grossmont Junior College Governing Board occurred July 1, 1961. With an opening enrollment of 1,538, the first college classes convened Sept. 11, 1961, on the Monte Vista High School campus in Spring Valley.

In an election held Sept. 18, 1962, voters approved a $7.5 million facilities bond. The Governing Board moved to purchase a 135-acre site located on a scenic mesa in the Fletcher Hills area adjacent to the cities of El Cajon and La Mesa. Ground was broken for the new campus in December 1963. Even before construction was completed, the administrative offices were moved to the new campus and classes opened Sept. 14, 1964. The Grossmont College campus was officially dedicated Dec. 12, 1964.

The first increment of the campus was planned to accommodate an enrollment of 2,500 daytime students, with the completed campus expected to serve 4,800 students. On Oct. 18, 1965, a second bond election for $3.5 million was passed by area voters, making it possible to complete the master plan. New facilities were completed Sept. 25, 1967.

In 1970, state legislation changed the term “junior college” in California codes to “community college.” On Jan. 6, 1971, the San Diego County Board of Education approved a petition from the Grossmont Junior College District to change its designation to the Grossmont Community College District. On March 5, 1985, the Governing Board officially changed the name of the district to the Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District (GCCCCD) to reflect the establishment of Cuyamaca College.

Proposition R, the district’s $202 million facilities bond measure, was approved in 2002, allowing the construction of the Learning and Technology Resource Center, the Science Laboratory Building, the Digital Arts and Sculpture Building Complex, the Health and Sciences Complex, and a multi-story parking structure. The college’s new student center, Griffin Center, and the Student Services and Administrative Building opened in spring 2012.

In 2013, East County voters approved Proposition V, which made it possible to renovate or replace overcrowded and outdated facilities; upgrade campus technology; build the new Performing and Visual Arts Center; improve safety, security, and access for the disabled; build a modern and much larger Veterans Center; and more.

Today, Grossmont College is transforming lives through education by offering more than 150 degree and certificate programs, including university transfer and career education courses. Grossmont College also offers a full range of student activities and clubs, as well as 17 intercollegiate athletic teams.

The Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District is an economic engine that is the largest provider of higher education and job training in the East County.

The total number of degrees and certificates awarded in 2022-2023 is 4043.

The Grossmont College Seal

The seal of Grossmont College is used on official academic documents. It includes the Griffin symbol, which is the half-eagle, half-lion of Greek mythology, combining their qualities of courage, strength, and swiftness. The Griffin was charged with guarding the treasures of the ancient world. The three Greek words are Tharros, Dynamis, and Philosophia, which means courage, strength, and love of wisdom.

Degrees and Certificates Granted

Granting of the associate in arts degree or the associate in science degree to a student indicates successful completion of basic and general educational requirements plus evidence of proficiency in a specialized field. In addition, a certificate of achievement is available to those who have attained well-defined levels of skill and knowledge in designated areas. As a member of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges and the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges, certain courses taken at Grossmont College are accepted on transfer by the University of California, all California State Universities, and by most public and private four-year colleges and universities throughout the United States.

2022-2023 Full-Time Distinguished Faculty Honoree

Sharon Sampson Administration of Justice

Sharon Sampson was born in Los Angeles, California, but spent her formative years in Belize, Central America. As the byproduct of South Central Los Angeles, Sampson recognizes the complexity of her social position. Raised by an immigrant, single parent in this country, Sampson was thrust into roles to acquire information for her family since she had the status of being a US-born citizen. While marred with challenges, Sampson's formative years allowed for dreams of a better life with the positive influences of many on her journey. She attended Holy Cross Middle School and Bishop Conaty High School, where she excelled in math and science. She was taught that education was the ticket to social mobility. After graduating from University of California, Riverside in psychology and sociology, she earned her master's degree from Cal State Los Angeles.

After completing a master's degree program, she worked as a juvenile probation officer for the County of Riverside, then later as a United States probation officer for a combined experience of 23 years. During her career as an officer, she also taught as an adjunct faculty for approximately 12 years before fully transitioning to a full-time faculty at Grossmont College.

As a full-time Administration of Justice Faculty, she actively engages in initiatives to reduce the opportunity gaps for Grossmont College scholars, especially those marginalized and underserved. She has served as the AOJ internship coordinator and Criminal Justice Club Advisor. Her passion for teaching has provided her with a unique skill set that is critical for continuing to change the academic trajectory of so many underrepresented students. She is an Academic Senate officer and participates on the Curriculum Committee and the Regional Oversight Committee. She is a Professional Development Co-Coordinator and Equal Employment Opportunity Site Lead. Her active involvement in various committees and taskforce is to support the success and retention of the students at Grossmont College.

Sampson is pursuing her EdD in Organizational Change Leadership from the University of Southern California (USC). She feels she stands on the shoulders of many women of color who sacrificed by remaining in the struggle to clear a narrow path for her existence and survival. She was raised with the "if not you, then who else?" mantra that heavily influences her disposition and resiliency. Sampson is firmly committed to being a change-maker to clear the pathways for those just beginning their journey. As a scholar-practitioner, she plans to remain on this journey for the long haul.

2022-2023 Part-Time Distinguished Faculty Honoree

Tara Venn Administration of Justice

Tara Venn was born in Michigan and raised in western North Carolina. Venn attended undergraduate schooling at East Carolina University on a full volleyball scholarship as a middle blocker from 1992 to 1996. One of Venn's greatest accomplishments was finishing 11th in the 1995 NCAA Division I rankings for block average per game. After receiving her degree in criminal justice, Venn moved to San Diego for graduate school and in 1999 began her career in the criminal justice field with the Chula Vista

Police Department as a volunteer in the Crime Laboratory. After short stints as a peace officer and police services officer with the department, Venn was transferred to the crime laboratory in 2008 as a forensic specialist. Venn has been in the laboratory ever since and has loved every day. Being in the crime laboratory is so very rewarding for Venn because she gives a voice to victims through proper documentation of crime scenes and collection of evidence. One moment Venn can be in the office working on reports or processing evidence in the examination room, and in a couple of hours be working on a homicide scene or testifying in court.

Venn is an active member of the California State Division of the International Association for Identification and the Southern California Association of Fingerprint Officers. She has served on the executive board as a director of the south for the CSDIAI association.

In 2012, Venn began her career at Grossmont College teaching in the Administration of Justice program. She is currently the co-instructor for AOJ 218 Crime Scene Technology during the fall semester and teaches AOJ 252 Advanced Forensic Photography during the spring semester.

Venn is forever grateful to those in the field who gave her a chance and she sees instructing future forensic colleagues as her way of giving back. Venn believes the instructors at Grossmont College and within the AOJ program are the best and the proof is evident in how many graduates are successfully representing Grossmont College across the country. Venn always tells her students that to be successful in the field of forensic science one needs to have the desire to do the absolute best job each time. You only have one chance to process the crime scene, whether it be a burglary or a death investigation. The victim and the overall community represented deserve nothing less.

Student Speaker ShannaRai Diaz

ShannaRai Diaz could have been a statistic, but instead, she is now a beacon of hope for other formally incarcerated students.

Born in Wisconsin, Diaz and her two sisters were raised by a single mother. She moved to San Diego when she was 15 years old and attended Santana High School. Diaz started at Grossmont College in 2001 straight out of high school. Her plan was to complete the nursing program. However, that dream was short lived. She failed her second semester and dropped out of college.

“Due to an addiction to methamphetamine, I was incarcerated and missed my finals that semester and still was active in my addiction,” Diaz said. “I continued a downward spiral for the next 20 years. During this time, I had several glimpses of what my life could be without drugs. I gave birth to two amazing children, and I went to adult school where I received my phlebotomy license.”

After working as a phlebotomist at Alvarado hospital, she relapsed and the good life she knew was gone in an instant. She was incarcerated in state prison and went directly to rehab upon her release.

“I managed to stay clean for a little more than two years before I relapsed again,” Diaz said.

On Oct. 14th, 2018, Diaz was in the back of a police car, once again headed to Las Colinas Detention and Reentry Facility. This was the turning point that saved her life.

“It was while I was incarcerated this time that I knew I needed to change my life,” Diaz said. “I needed to find a purpose. It was when I signed up to take a class through the Pathways to Success program by Grossmont College, that I found myself and the ability to dream and set goals for my future again. Dr. Pearl Lopez was an amazing professor for my Counseling 120 class.”

Upon Diaz’s release, she joined Grossmont College’s Justice Scholars program and enrolled as a full-time student in the spring of 2021. Diaz went on to make the Dean’s and President’s list every single semester.

“This time around I was focused and had a plan mapped out for me,” Diaz said. “After working hard my first semester and utilizing the resources offered to me, I knew nothing could stop me from reaching my goal. My goal is to work with at-risk youth who have been impacted by incarceration.”

Diaz is graduating Grossmont College with an associate degree for transfer in psychology and in social and behavioral science. She has been accepted to San Diego State University, Cal State San Marcos, Cal State Fullerton, Cal State Los Angeles, and Cal State Long Beach for the fall semester.

Associated Students of Grossmont College (ASGC)

MISSION STATEMENT: The ASGC strives to represent the interest and concerns of all Grossmont College students through improving the quality of campus life, promoting awareness of issues affecting students, and providing philanthropic support that strengthens partnerships within the campus community.

HISTORICAL OVERVIEW: The ASGC was created July 1, 1961, to serve the students of Grossmont College. Early in the college's existence, the ASGC selected the college colors (green and gold) and mascot (griffin), and established student government. The ASGC was instrumental in the building and operating of the bookstore, financing scholarships to countless students, providing needed equipment and technologies campuswide, and launching the district's phone-in registration system. In recent years, the ASGC supported the Prop. R facilities bond issue and funded the major portion of the resurfacing of the running track.

The ASGC continues to be the source through which Grossmont College students expand their experiences far beyond what they obtain from classroom instruction alone.
