Emergency Grants for Students

Students can be awarded based on standard education-related costs (such as books & supplies, housing expenses, food, clothing, transportation and child care) as well as emergency costs incurred due to the pandemic. All students (including Dreamers, undocumented and International students) are potentially able to receive these federal funds. Students also need to be enrolled in a minimum of one class.

Mentee of the Month

Connor is majoring in history and planning to transfer to a four-year university to continue pursuing higher education. He is truly a polite and all-around kind person. On top of that, he also makes sure that he stays on track with his goals in his education journey. He responds to messages in a timely fashion and always engages in the conversation and expresses his appreciation for the information. His active participation in communication and genuine commitment in the FYE program really set him towards excellence and better prepared him for his future endeavors.
